

	Development Management service, including applications for Listed Building consent	Is the data collected direct from the citizen?	Is the data about the citizen collected from a third party?
Why we collect information about you?	To enable us to record, process and determine your application for Listed Building Consent in Gloucester.
What is the legal basis for us collecting your information?	We are authorised to collect this data under the Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Act 1990
What information do we collect about you?	Title, first name, surname, company name (where applicable), Address, address of property, email address, telephone numbers, fax number
Who do we share the information with?	An application for Listed Building Consent is a publicly available document. The data is available to the public in order to inspect and comment upon your application.
Is any information transferred to or stored in servers based outside the European Economic Area?	No
How long do we keep your information?	Permanent
Who do we collect information from?	Applicants for Planning permission and/or their agent
What are the consequences if we don't collect the data?	The applicant is required to declare that they are the legal owner of the site of the proposed development. Therefore, without the data we are unable to register your application for planning permission
Are any decision about you made by automatic means?	No	