

Lesson 7: Evaluation of the changes in Southgate Street

Aims:

- To bring together the information that has been gathered over the topic.
- To pull out the points of interest and importance from their learning.

Recourses needed

- Comic Strip / Storyboard templates
- Access to the work the children have created throughout the topic

Whole class introduction:

Explain that the purpose of this lesson is to gather together information and make some conclusions about the changes that have occurred in Southgate Street over time. Remind the children of the sorts of things that have been learnt and explain that during this lesson they are going to brainstorm as a class the key points and changes in the development of Southgate Street.

Individual activity

1. To create a cartoon strip showing the key changes to Southgate Street. Children to show what they feel is important rather than this being teacher led.
